VA ELIMINATES NET WORTH AS VETERAN HEALTH CARE ELIGIBILITY FACTOR

The Department of Veterans Affairs is updating the way it determines eligibility for VA health care. This is a change that will result in more Veterans having access to the health care benefits they’ve earned and deserve. Effective 2015, VA eliminated the use of net worth as a determining factor for both health care programs and co-payment responsibilities. This change makes VA health care benefits more accessible to lower-income Veterans and brings VA policies in line with Secretary Bob McDonald’s MyVA initiative which reorients VA around Veterans’ needs.

“Everything that we do and every decision we make has to be focused on the Veterans we serve,” said Secretary Bob McDonald. “We are working every day to earn their trust. Changing the way we determine eligibility to make the process easier for Veterans is part of our promise to our Veterans.”

Instead of combining the sum of Veterans’ income with their assets to determine eligibility for medical care and co-payment obligations, VA will now only consider a Veteran’s gross household income and deductible expenses from the previous year. Elimination of the consideration of net worth for VA health care enrollment means that certain lower-income, non-service-connected Veterans will have less out-of-pocket costs. Over a 5-year period, it is estimated that 190,000 Veterans will become eligible for reduced costs of their health care services.

In March 2014, VA eliminated the annual requirement for updated financial information. VA now uses information from the Internal Revenue Service and Social Security Administration to automatically match individual Veterans’ income information which reduces the burden on Veterans to keep their healthcare eligibility up to date. That change better aligned VA’s health care financial assessment program with other federal health care organizations.

Veterans may submit updated income information at www.1010ez.med.va.gov/, or by visiting their nearby VA health care facility. For more information, visit www.va.gov/healthbenefits or call VA toll-free at 1-877-222-VETS (8387).

REUNION DATES

We had shipmates suggest we move the reunion into April as Tucson starts to warm up in May. After experiencing Tucson in May and checking the average temperatures, Dings and I agree. So for all of us that are not used to Arizona heat, the reunion is now April 18-21, 2016. Break out the crayons and circle that date on all your calendars. We expect all our shipmates to be there. Remember, if you don’t attend, we will talk about you and you will not be there to correct the stories. There is only one way to correct that problem.
Dings and I, and of course with our adult supervisors, went to Tucson and decided on the Radisson Hotel for our reunion. The hotel is in the business area of Tucson so we are close to restaurants and shopping areas. Each room is a mini-suite with a living room and a separate bedroom with a king size Sleep Number bed. Also all rooms have a refrigerator, microwave, safe and two flat screen TVs. The ladies will like the heads as each has a dressing room, two sinks, a separate tub and a shower. The rooms have a balcony on the outside and the doors open into the interior courtyard. The hotel is blocking some room around the hospitality room for CAIMAN. We don’t want anyone to have to walk a long distance for a beer. Free Wi-Fi is available throughout the hotel. We got all of that for $90.52 total (taxes and fees included) a night and this includes a buffet breakfast every morning. The rate is good for three days before and after the reunion. Pets are welcome with a $75.00 fee. The hotel has a restaurant and a bar. G. T. Shafer highly recommends the bar. Reservations can be made by calling 520-721-7100. Don’t forget to tell the operator you are attending the USS CAIMAN reunion or you will pay full price.

HOSPITALITY ROOM
The hospitality room is on the ground floor and has a terrace so we can enjoy the outdoors or indoors. It is close to the pool, spa, and exercise room. This will interest all as we attempt to work off all the free beer. Since a breakfast is included, we will not have sticky buns in the hospitality room this time but we will have Seattle’s Best coffee. As always free beer, soft drinks, and water will be available. Monday, the hotel is giving us a welcome reception that will include margaritas, lemonade, chips and salsa. The Tucson Tourist Office will have pamphlets and maps showing the many attractions in the area. There is plenty to do and see in Tucson. People that don’t live in Arizona will enjoy the landscape. It is definitely different than the Pacific Northwest where I reside.

TOUR
Dings and I picked a very unique place to visit this time. It is called Old Tucson. This is an area where more than 300 movies and TV shows have been filmed. Many buildings have been restored from the early days of the Tucson area. The movie sets are re-creations of early times. There are re-enactments of gun fights, saloon shows, and many displays and presentations from the movies and TV shows that have used Old Tucson. We will have a guided tour, then free time to roam on our own. We will then have a buffet lunch with a presentation on the history of Old Tucson. We will have charter buses to get us there and back to the hotel.

PARKING
There are very large parking areas on three sides of the hotel. The parking areas are large enough to allow us to park EMPTY RV’s. Remember, the hotel is in business to rent rooms so no living in the RVs in the parking lot. Later I will print information on RV parks in the area and close to the hotel. We don’t want any of the RVers to get lost to or from the hotel.

HOTEL SHUTTLE
The hotel provides a free shuttle to and from any place within three miles of the hotel. This is great for dinner or tourist activities. The shuttle to and from the airport is $15.00 for one person and gets cheaper for each rider with more people. Cabs are $45.00 to or from the airport.

GOLF COURSES
There are several golf courses in Tucson. There is one next door to the hotel and they will give us a discount because we are such nice guys. The final decision will be made later.

ELECTIONS
The coming reunion will be that time again. Commander and secretary/treasurer positions will be voted on in April. Good or bad news, Yeo and I are running again. If you desire to run for one of these positions, contact me.

ETERNAL PATROL
As happens we don’t get the information on a shipmates receiving eternal patrol orders until several months later. I attempt to keep the information updated.
